Re: Second Amendment Arms, et al. v. City of Chicago, No. 10 C 4257

Dear David:

Pursuant to the Court's direction to the City at the status in the above-referenced case on January 26, 2017, the City provides you with the following information regarding (i) the ownership of 415 W. Armitage Avenue (the "Property"); and (ii) the denial of Plaintiff R. Joseph Franzese's application for a business license at the Property.

1. Ownership of 415 W. Armitage

By conducting a search of the Cook County of Recorder of Deeds' publicly available records, the City has determined that the Property (PIN 14-33-307-004-0000) was owned by John Scott at the time Franzese submitted his application on July 2, 2010. The Recorder's records show that Douglas Drazek executed a warranty deed to John Scott on January 8, 2009, and John Scott subsequently executed a deed in trust to Chad Emigholz, Trustee, on October 16, 2013. See Deeds dated January 8, 2009 and October 16, 2013, attached hereto as Exhibit A. The City therefore did not have any ownership interest in the Property when Franzese filed his application.

The City also confirms that it was not leasing the property from Mr. Scott at the time of the application. The City's Department of Fleet and Facility Management maintains all leases, and it confirms that the City has never entered into a lease for the Property. The City will provide an affidavit if required by the Court.

2. Denial of July 2, 2010 Application for a Business License

With respect to the denial of Franzese's application for a business license, the City cannot locate any written record that it notified Franzese that his application was denied for failure to meet the zoning requirements, but documents produced in discovery demonstrate that Franzese was aware of the denial and canceled his application.

David G. Sigale

On July 2, 2010, Franzese submitted his application for a business license on the Property to the City of Chicago's Department of Business Affairs and Consumer Protection ("BACP") using BACP's on-line application system. See Receipt, a copy of which was tendered to the City by Plaintiffs, attached hereto as Exhibit B; BACP Printout of Application Activity (CITY 000848), attached hereto as Exhibit C. As the Receipt states under the section "What Happens Next," "[o]nce the Zoning Classification Review and listed business owner(s) verification have been completed, and if applicable, all of the required documents have been submitted as well, then a 'Business Location Review Complete' e-mail will be sent to you with instructions to proceed with 'Part II' of the application." Ex. B. The Receipt further states that the review may take up to seven business days, and that "to find out the status of the application, at any time," the applicant can visit the "My Overview" page. See Ex. B.

According to the BACP Printout, the City determined on July 2, 2010, that the application did not meet the zoning requirements. See Ex. C. The Zoning Department determined that business activity on the Property was not permitted and returned the application back to the BACP queue. We could not locate a written record that BACP notified Franzese that his application was denied for failure to meet zoning requirements.

Although the City maintains that the existence of a written denial is irrelevant to resolution of its motion for summary judgment, the records produced in discovery demonstrate that the City informed Franzese of the denial of his application. First, the BACP Printout states that on January 30, 2012, the application was "[c]ancelled on customer request."¹ Ex. C. Second, in an e-mail dated February 10, 2011, Judith Bender of the U.S. Department of Justice informed Rose Kelly, a City attorney, that "[i]n a telephone conversation some months ago with Mr. Franzese, he stated to me that the City of Chicago had denied his application for a business license. Can you confirm this? And if so, was it done by letter of which I can get a copy?" See Emails between Bender and Kelly, attached as Exhibit D. Ms. Kelly responded on February 16, 2011: "Mr. Franzese applied for a limited business license at 415 W. Armitage. After being reviewed by the city's zoning department, Mr. Franzese was advised that that location was not zoned for business use and the license application did not meet the zoning approval requirement." Id. For these reasons, and plain common sense, there can be no question but that other considerations as it would be lawful for any person owning the same to deal with the same, whether similar to or different from the ways above specified, at any time or times hereafter.

¹ This fact is telling and provides an additional reason why Franzese lacks standing. Either Franzese knew of the denial and cancelled the application, or he did not know of the denial and voluntarily withdrew the application, choosing not to proceed for another reason.

Franzese was aware of the denial of his application.

In no case shall any party dealing with said trustee in relation to said real estate, or to whom said premises or any part thereof shall be conveyed, contracted to be sold, leased or mortgaged by said trustee, be obliged to see to the application of any purchase money, rent or money borrowed or advanced on said real estate, or be obliged to see that the terms of this trust have been complied with, or be obliged to inquire into the necessity or expediency of any act of said trustee, or be obliged or privileged to inquire into any of the terms of said trust agreement; and every deed, trust deed, mortgage, lease or other instrument executed by said trustee in relation to said real estate shall be conclusive evidence in favor of every person relying upon or claiming under any such conveyance, lease or other instrument, (a) that at the time of the delivery thereof the trust created herein and by said trust agreement was in full force and effect; (b) that such conveyance or other instrument was executed in accordance with the trusts, conditions and limitations contained in this Indenture and in said trust agreement or in some amendment thereof and binding upon all beneficiaries thereunder; (c) that said trustee was duly authorized and empowered to execute and deliver every such deed, trust deed, lease, mortgage or other instrument; and (d) if the conveyance is made to a successor or successors in trust, that such successor or successors in trust have been properly appointed and are fully vested with all the title, estate, rights, powers, authorities, duties and obligations of its, his or their predecessor in trust.

The interest of each and every beneficiary hereunder and of all persons claiming under them or any of them shall be only in the earnings, avails and proceeds arising from the sale or other disposition of said real estate, and such interest is hereby declared to be personal property, and no beneficiary hereunder shall have any title or interest, legal or equitable, in or to said real estate as such, but only an interest in the earnings, avails and proceeds thereof as aforesaid.

If the title to any of the above lands is now or hereafter registered, the Registrar of Titles is hereby directed not to register or note in the certificate of title or duplicate thereof, or memorial, the words "in trust," or "upon condition," or "with limitations," or words of similar import, in accordance with the statute in such case made and provided.

And the said grantor hereby expressly waives and releases any and all right or benefit under and by virtue of any and all statutes of the State of Illinois, providing for the exemption of homesteads from sale on execution or otherwise.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the grantor aforesaid has hereunto set his hand and seal this 29 day of August, 2013.

Hello Ms. Bender

Mr. Franzese applied for a limited business license at 415 West Armitage. After being reviewed by the city's zoning department, Mr. Franzese was advised that that location was not zoned for business use and the license application did not meet the zoning approval requirement.

Let me know if you need any further information.

Ms. Kelly

Thank you for the below information, it is exactly what I needed.

I have one other question. In a telephone conversation some months ago with Mr. Franzese, he stated to me that the City of Chicago had denied his application for a business license. Can you confirm this? And if so, was it done by letter of which I can get a copy? Thank you once again.

Subject: RE: Application for Federal Firearms License from Reid Joseph Franzese

Dear Ms. Bender:

Section 8-20-100 of the Municipal Code of Chicago prohibits the sale or transfer of firearms and ammunition, except under very limited conditions. Specifically, section 8-20-100 states as follows:

8-20-100 Permissible sales and transfers of firearms and ammunition.

- (a) Except as authorized by subsection (e) and section 2-84-075, no firearm may be sold, acquired or otherwise transferred within the city, except through inheritance of the firearm.
- (b) No ammunition may be sold or otherwise transferred within the city, except through a licensed weapons dealer, or as otherwise allowed by this code.
- (c) No firearm or ammunition shall be security for, or be taken or received by way of any mortgage, deposit, pledge or pawn.
- (d) No person may loan, borrow, give or rent to or from another person, any firearm or ammunition except in accordance with this chapter.
- (e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a peace officer may sell or transfer any lawfully held firearm or ammunition to another peace officer in accordance with the other provisions of this chapter.

Therefore, no person would be issued a business license for the sale of firearms in the city. This is further supported by Chapter 4-144 of the Code, which licenses weapons dealers. Section 4-144-010 of the licensing chapter requires that any person who wishes to sell a deadly weapon (which, in the definition, includes a firearm) must first obtain a business license to do so. However, that same section also prohibits the licensee, as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person licensed under this chapter to engage in the business of selling, or sell, give away or otherwise transfer, any firearm as that term is defined in Section 8-20-010." Chgo. Muni Code, 4-144-010. (Emphasis added).

Pursuant to these two sections, the City would not issue a business license to anyone at any location in the city for the sale of firearms. The city is willing to send a represent to testify to this information.

Subject: Application for Federal Firearms License from Reid Joseph Franzese

Hello, Ms. Kelly

My supervisor and I met with you at your office a few months ago regarding the firearms license application from Reid Joseph Franzese with a proposed business premises of 415 West Armitage, Chicago, Illinois. Since that time, we have limited contact with Mr. Franzese or his attorney.

As we stated in our meeting, we can hold off on the application process for a time, but not indefinitely. I spoke with Mr. Franzese this morning and he indicated that the City of Chicago has attempted on at least two occasions to have his case thrown out of court, with negative results. He expects a trial date to be set this week.

If this is in fact true, this is some progress, which is what we need to see to suspend the application process for a time. What we are asking of you and your office is whether or not you will deny a business license to operate a firearms shop to Mr. Franzese at ANY address within the City of Chicago; whether your office (representative) will testify at a hearing to this denial; and whether you can provide this information to us in writing (preferably in letter form). If so, we can act on the application once we receive that documentation from you.

Due to the weather predictions, our office will most likely be sparsely staffed the next two days, but I can be reached on the below cell number and my supervisor, Nick Scouffas, can be reached on his cell number 630-688-6405. Thank you for your prompt reply.
